

The Queenslander Pictorial.

FRIENDS

Printed Monthly by S. H. & W. H. H. H.

WITH OUR BOYS IN PALESTINE

Photos by A. P. O.

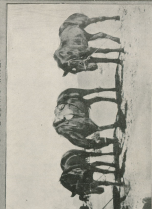

Bathing in Jordan's Waters

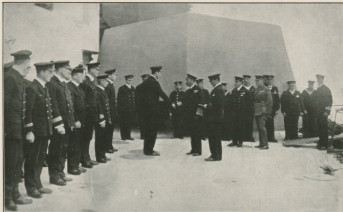

Over the Palestine Hills

Light Horses on a Mountain Road

In good condition in spite of hardships

AFTER THE BATTLE OF JUTLAND—THE KING VISITS H.M.S. COLLIERHEAD.

The officer with whom the King is shaking hands is Lieutenant (now Commander) C. M. Ingham, R.N., who was the recipient of a baronetcy in recognition of his services in the war. The King's visit to the ship was the first of a series of visits to the fleet. The King's visit to the ship was the first of a series of visits to the fleet. The King's visit to the ship was the first of a series of visits to the fleet.

THE RAILWAY BRIDGE OVER SANDY CREEK, NEAR MOUNTAIN, DESTROYED AFTER BOMBING BY THE ENGLISH LAST YEAR.

The whole structure has been rebuilt on the original foundations.

—H. G. and S. G. Sharpe photo.

At Mackay - The turnout collected $100 in great donations.

At Mackay - The procession at Mackay.

At Mackay - The band of Admiral Van Toph.

At Southport - Part of the procession.

At Southport - The Korean band.

At Children - Toppers for the Fair Girls' Live up to PEACE
CELEBRATIONS
IN PROVINCIAL CENTRES.
 At Children - For Peace Movement, August 4th, 1926, Display

"OUT WEST WHERE THE STARS ARE BRIGHTEST"

H. J. WATSON, owner

General view of the Homestead.

The Homestead
water supply.

MARYVALE, IN THE WARREGO
DISTRICT.

The wind and sub-Antarctic water supply

The Rocks, 23 miles from the Homestead

